SNOWBOUND FOR WEEKS IN PENNSYLVANIA

Butler, Pa., March 4.—After being snowbound for seven weeks, residents for a distance of 50 miles from Foxburg to Kane will today see the first sign of civilization. For two weeks drifts 15 feet deep and hundreds of feet long have shut these people off from all communication and the first train started this morning. The tie-up was the longest known in western Pennsylvania.

RAISING RELIEF FUNDS FOR PHILADELPHIA STRIKERS

Pittsburg. Pa., March 4.—Two street car men from Philadelphia wearing the uniform of the Philadelphia Traction company are raising relief funds in this city with a hand organ. During the apring-like weather of the last two days they have stationed themselves at transfer and division points of the Pittsburg trolley lines, where, after playing the hand organ, they would pass the hat among the Pittsburg street car men, realizing many dimes and quarters.

A STENOGRAPHER'S MISTAKE.

New York, March 4.—Through a stenographer's mistake, the American Bible society is $4,995 poorer than it thought it was a week ago,
A letter from a man in Ohio was received last week, subscribing $5,000 toward the $500,000 endowment fund being raised. A warm letter of thanks was sent in reply, but expectations were shattered when a return letter from the Ohio man said he meant $5 and that his stenographer had mistakenly added the ciphers.

BASEBALL MAKERS OBJECT TO LOW TARIFF

Washington, March 4.—The national game of America now presents a prob-lem for the consideration of the tariff nanufacture baseballs, all duties paid and sell them at wholesale at San Prancisco or Seattle for 90 cents a lozen, while the covers alone cost the american dealers 50 cents a dozen. It is said that no legislation will be macted this season on the baseball ariff but Representative Kann of Caliburned our feet until we told where we had hidden our money," said John Wagner, 80 years old, as he picked Frank Donahue out of a line of eight men at the Etna police station. "It is 14 years ago," continued Wagner, "but I shall never forget his face."

Donahue was sent to jail to await trial for burglary. Two companions are serving terms in the state prison for the crime, but Donahue fled and was captued upon his return to his home.

As the prisener was being led away the aged man wept and said:

"I have prayed that the guilty one would be captured because those men were responsible for my wife's death."

Arrest of a Philadelphia Rioter; Rescuing Battered Strike Breaker.

Philadelphia's great trolley men's strike, marked by violence and posistance to authority, will rank among the worst disturbances of the kind in the country's history. Hundreds of arrests hands in a day, injuries to scores of persons sent to the hospitals and fatalities from bullets, missiles and bentings left the authorities in no doubt as to the seriousness of the problem that confronted them. The pictures show the arrest of a rioter by a mounted policeman, the latter baving a revolver in his latted, and the rescue of a strike breaker after he had been budly beaten by members of the mob.

LABOR PROBLEM IN HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

Honolulu, March 4.-Another experiment by the Hawaiian board of imm ration in its efforts to find a soli ion for the labor problem in the lands, appears to be a failure. After importing Spaniards, Portuguese, Porto Ricans and South Sea Islanders, all of whom proved unsatisfactory or left the plantations dissatisfied with wages and onditions, the planters turned to the Philippine Islands and to Siberia for Philippine Islands and to Siberia for immigrants.

Four hundred Russians, men, wemen and children, who were brought here on the last steamer from the orient by the territorial board of immigration, remain camped at the wharf and refuse to go to work on the sugnreplantations for which purpose they were imported. They assert that agents of the immigration board at Harbin promised them $45 a month, double the sum that is being offered them here.

ASIATIC EXCLUSION LEAGUE.

Los Angeles, March 4.—An Asiatic exclusion league was formed by labor unions here yesterday and resolutions were passed declaring that the report of the immigration committee of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce, which favored Japanese and Chinese immigration to California, was unwise and unfair to laboring people.
